Please send an essay with your application containing your occupation, why you would like to attend, and how you feel you could apply what you learn to your curriculum or programs. If you are awarded the scholarship, you will be required to present what you learned and how you can apply it, to the board of NNYA on a zoom meeting and write an article for the NNYA Newsletter.

Before applying please go to the Hog Island website <https://hogisland.audubon.org/> and review their camper guidelines. The recipient is responsible for transportation to and from camp in Bremen, Maine and any travel expenses.

Applications will be reviewed by the board and a decision made before March 10th.

Please return your application via email to nnya@nnya.org or
